A Greener Way to Clean

Today, many companies realize the importance of environmental sustainability and take on the responsibility to protect our environment. While doing business, Elim Supply is continuously thinking of ways to take care of our globe. From the source of our raw materials to the packaging we delivered to our customers, we try to reduce the damage many manufacturing businesses might put on the environment.

Manufacturing our mops from recycled textiles can divert million pounds of garment scraps from landfills. By using recycled textiles, we also eliminate all use of color dyes that can cause significant water pollution to nearby rivers. We try to have a more sustainable solution for producing our cleaning products.

We are currently part of Green America, an organization that strives to create a socially just and environmentally sustainable society. Elim Supply will continue to be a greener cleaning supply manufacturer and promote a healthier and cleaner environment for our community.

Receiving recycled textiles

We buy recycled clothing from all around the world to our manufactory to produce our raw materials. The garments are shred according to their colors and materials.

Producing raw material

The shred scraps are pressed into cotton blocks according to the colors and are ready to be spun into yarns.

Spinning Yarn

We have the latest spinning machines from Germany and Austria to maximize efficiency when spinning yarns in-house. Yarns are pre-color coded to prevent using additional color dye.

Creating Cleaning Products

Ready-to-use yarns then are produced into different types of mops according to their materials and property. The mops are packaged and ready to ship to our customers.

Let's Go Brick!

Now is the time to maximize your warehouse storage and minimize your shipping costs! Our newest packing technique compresses the mop heads into about 1/3 of its original size. The new packages:

- ✓ Save shelf and storage space.
- ✓ Reduce shipment size for fuel savings
- ✓ Same quality yarns with NO EXTRA CHARGE
- ✓ Private labeling available
